CORAM: A.M.KHANWILKAR,J

DATE : OCTOBER 25, 2005.

P.C. :

1. None appears for applicant. Dismissed for non-prosecution.

2. Later on, at 3 p.m. counsel for the applicant appears and prays for restoration of the chamber summons to the file to its original number. Counsel for the respondent is present in the court and has no objection for restoring the chamber summons to be heard on merit. Accordingly, the order dismissing the chamber summons is recalled and chamber summons is restored to file to its original number.

3. In so far as merits is concerned, issue in this chamber summons is squarely answered in the order passed yesterday in Companion Chamber summons No.1124 of 2005. Accordingly, for the same reasons, the respondent No.2 is directed to refrain from paying sum of Rs.27,53,205.48, out of the sum of Rs.2,45,00,000/- payable by the respondent No.2 to Respondent No.1 or any person claiming through or under respondent No.1 arising from the obligations under the Registered Sale Deed dated 27th April, 2005. Instead, that amount shall be deposited in this court.

4. Ordered accordingly.
